Terps Aim For Return To Top Of ACC

In the 1999-2000 season, Maryland, in the hearts and minds of head coach Chris Weller and her maturing band of youth, had fallen just two games short of playing for a national postseason title.

"The best thing that could have ever happened to this team was playing in the NIT," said Weller during postgame comments in Gainesville, Fla. "It has been an outstanding experience for our young team. This tournament has helped point our team in the right direction for the future."

Six months later, as the legendary coach leads her team into the 2000-01 season, the future is now.

As Weller's freshmen and sophomores turn to sophomores and juniors, and without a single senior on the team, the Terps have their sights on adding to the rich tradition of a Maryland program which enters the 2000-01 season among the top 10 women's college programs in history, based on all-time poll results from the Associated Press. Its tradition includes No. 1 rankings, three trips to the Final Four, and an unprecedented eight ACC championships.

On paper, the Terrapins in 2000-01 will both be talented and reasonably deep on the bench. Headlining the cast are three returning starters including ACC honors candidate juniors Deedee Warley and Marché Strickland. Warley anchors Maryland's play in the paint with frequent All-America-type production, and only needs consistency to earn that merit nationally. Strickland, meanwhile, is a shooter and scorer who led the Terps with 14.3 points per game as a sophomore, her first true season in her most natural role at the "2" guard. She is an electric scorer who returns as one of the ACC's most deadly long-range threats.

Marché Strickland

Perhaps the key to last season's success was placing the Terps into their natural playing roles. The addition of five feisty freshmen helped plug holes in the Terrapin lineup and gave Weller the personnel she required to guide her charges to a 16-15 season last year. The newcomers helped spearhead the 21st winning season in program history, recording the ACC's best turnaround performance in a decade.

Most prominent was guard Vicki Brick, now a sophomore, who started 26 games at point guard and set Maryland freshman records for steals and assists. Moreover, she became the first freshman to lead the ACC in steals (3.1) in 20 years and her 4.3 assists were third in ACC history by a freshman. Other freshman regulars included guards Terri Daniels and Renneika Razor who helped add defensive pressure and mobility to a guard corps that was severely depleted only a year earlier.

The Terrapins still must successfully engineer their way through the constant obstacles provided by an ACC schedule with as many as five ranked teams and NCAA qualifiers. Position-by-position, Maryland has improved dramatically in two seasons, and depth could immediately improve with the presence of JC transfer Jamecca Harrell in the post. Here is a closer look at the Terrapins' personnel under Weller, who prepares for her 26th season as coach on the College Park hardwood:

Guard

All good teams begin with a talented point guard, and last season proved the theory correct. Though not flashy or spectacular, Vicki Brick answered Maryland's needs with a steady, productive freshman year that helped fortify the Terps' growth. Her relentless efforts on defense, and her disciplined poise on offense helped cement the talent surrounding her during a season of on-the-job training. The victim of a preseason ACL tear, Brick will not be able to re-assume the role until at least January, if she returns at all this season. Until then, the backcourt will consist of a balance of veterans in Terri Daniels and Renneika Razor and incoming freshmen Kiki Wimbush and Sarah Jenkins.

Says Weller of Brick, "Because Vicki is such a fit person, we expect her to make a full recovery from this injury," commented Weller. "We're not going to put a timetable on it, knowing that she can possibly be back as early as January. If it takes longer than that to however heal, then it does. We're not going to push her to come back before she's ready." Last year, Brick pitched in 7.2 points and 3.3 rebounds along with her assists and steals totals.

Guards
Vicki Brick	5-7	So.	Timonium, Md.
Terri Daniels	5-11	So.	Ellicott City, Md.
Sarah Jenkins	5-7	Fr.	Bowie, Md.
Renneika Razor	5-8	So.	New York, N.Y.
Marché Strickland	5-9	Jr.	Kingston, Mass.
Kiki Wimbush	5-8	Fr.	Suitland, Md.

And don't forget Marché Strickland. Strickland, at 5-9, emerged as the Terps' top scorer in 2000, following a freshman campaign during which she was asked to play the point much of the season. Last year, however, her talents were unleashed as a natural scorer and with games of 32, 27, 24 and 23 points to her credit, she became a formidable scorer for opponents to defend. Possessing a smooth jumper off the dribble and the ability to create a shot on the drive, Strickland finished seventh in scoring in the ACC overall, and third in league contests. She was second in the league in 3-point percentage (.404) while joining departed teammate Tiffany Brown as just the fourth duo in ACC history to each knock down more than 50 3-pointers on the same club (Brown 69, Strickland 59).

"Finally, we were able to play Marché where she needed to be played last year," said Weller. "She gave us a great team effort as a freshman, and she got better by playing the point much of her first season. But last year, she gave us a one-two scoring punch on the perimeter and she really became difficult for teams to defend."

Season Outlook

Deedee Warley

Strickland played either the "2" or "3" spots depending on lineup combinations. Daniels and Razor helped Brick form a fabulous freshman backcourt trio that last year combined to average 16.2 points, 8.3 rebounds, 7.5 assists and 5.2 steals per game. Daniels shuttled between roles at the point and shooting guard. Razor usually deployed her talents on a wing where her athleticism was utilized both inside and out. Given the Terps' newfound depth and versatility on the perimeter, Weller often used a three-guard set.

Daniels is a tall, six-foot guard who can both handle the ball and provide a shooting threat. She was third on the club in 3-point baskets in 2000, and added strength and experience will only increase that production. Throughout her first college season, Daniels displayed a gritty style of play that resulted in one of the league's best assist-to-turnover ratios — typically uncommon in freshmen. She averaged 2.4 points per game and 1.7 assists.

Razor, meanwhile, was ballyhooed by season's end as the Terps' most athletic star. Typically the first or second player off the bench, the New York native proved to be a quick-striking scorer, rebounder and leaper, and a threat on the fast break. She was third on the club in steals and her slashing style helped complement the feisty, heady play of Brick and Daniels. Razor averaged 6.6 points and 3.9 rebounds, and came off the bench to turn in a 13-point, 11-rebound double-double in a January road win at Wake Forest.

"Last year, our freshmen had a great impact on our program," said Weller. "I was pleased with their contributions on and off the court."

Wimbush enters the Maryland fold in fall 2000 as a highly-touted recruit who was a first team All-Met selection by the Washington Post. Like Razor, Wimbush, a 5-10 guard, exhibits an athletic presence in the lineup and should aid in Weller's ability to create matchup problems for opponents. Jenkins, at 5-7, possesses great shooting ability and joins Wimbush and Brick as primary ballhandlers. Both freshman guards come from outstanding programs; Wimbush guided Suitland High to a pair of 4A state championships during her prep tenure while Jenkins led Riverdale Baptist to a 26-1 mark as a senior.

Forward/Center

Maryland's inside game should prove to be bigger and physically stronger than in past seasons, buoyed by the return of juniors Deedee Warley and Rosita Melbourne. Warley, a 6-2 power forward, can muscle to the basket or extend the defense with a nifty 10- to 15-foot jump shot. She was second to Strickland with 12.9 points per game last season. She led the Terps with a 13.4 average as a freshman.

The prototypical power forward, Warley teamed with Melbourne to form a productive inside tandem. Last season's most improved player, Melbourne is a 6-3 leaper who has tremendous rebounding and shot blocking ability. A defensive enforcer in the lane, her 5.1 rebounds per game matched Warley for the team's lead. Melbourne was a 24-game starter who contributed three double-doubles including 10 points and 11 boards in the NIT quarterfinals at Florida.

Joining them this year to form an all-junior front line is transfer Jamecca Harrell. Harrell is a 6-4, post player with great shooting range and a soft touch around the basket. All three are athletic post players who can run the floor. What's more, all three have chemistry. The Warley-Melbourne-Harrell trio all played together in AAU circles during their prep days in the D.C. area.

The front line is deep with the return of 6-0 junior Ije Agba, and sophomore Brie Jackson. Joining them is 6-2 freshman center Crystal Washington, a relentless rebounder who provides the Terps with the presence of a true center.

No Time Like The Present

Maryland is senior-less entering the 2000-01 season and though it returns a still-young contingent dominated by sophomores and juniors, the Terps really are no longer interested in being called young. Given their combined experience — 167 starts over two seasons scattered among nine returning players — the Terrapins are ready and poised to return Maryland to its traditional destination, the NCAA Tournament.

"We don't need to talk about being young anymore. We have a talented group of veterans who know what it takes to win at this level," said Weller.

For Maryland, the motivation is clear and the goal is simple. There's no better time than the present. The future is now.

Preseason Notebook

Women Return Three Starters

Maryland enters the 2000-2001 campaign with three starters and a host of young talent that will challenge any team they meet this season. Third-team all-ACC honoree Marché Strickland (Kingston, Mass.), honorable mention ACC pick Deedee Warley (Fort Washington, Md.), and starting forward Rosita Melbourne (Washington, D.C.) all return with a year of starting experience. Strickland led the team in scoring last season with a 14.3 ppg average, and was second in the conference in three-point field goal percentage (.404). An impressive presence in the post, Warley averaged 12.9 ppg and pulled-down a team-leading 5.1 rebounds per game. Melbourne was also a strong presence inside, tallying 23 blocks to lead Maryland in that category.

Deedee Warley

Brick Out With ACL Tear

Sophomore guard Vicki Brick (Timonium, Md.) tore her anterior cruciate ligament in September and will miss most, if not all, of the 2000-2001 season. The Terps' leader in steals and assists as a freshman, she was the team's starting point guard for 26 of the 31 games, including leading the team all the way to the WNIT quarterfinals. Her 3.1 steals per game was an conference best, and was second in ACC history in steals by a freshman (95). She underwent surgery in Baltimore on Oct. 9, and will be reevaluated as the season goes on.

Vicki Brick

Four Newcomers Begin Terrapin Careers

The Terps welcome four new faces to the roster this year, including junior transfer Jamecca Harrell (Oxon Hill, Md.). Harrell averaged 12 points and 10 rebounds per game at Independence Junior College in Kansas. Three freshmen also join Maryland for the 2000-01 campaign. 6-2 forward-center Crystal Washington (Clinton, Md.) averaged a double-double at Bishop McNamara and will fortify the Terps inside, while guards Sarah Jenkins (Bowie, Md.) and Kiki Wimbush (Suitland, Md.) will both bring their quickness to the lineup and round out the Terrapins' newcomers this season.

Jamecca Harrell

Head Coach Chris Weller

Maryland's Chris Weller (Maryland '66) has guided her alma mater to a national championship game and three Final Four appearances. Beginning her 26th season at the Terrapins' helm, she has engineered an unprecedented eight ACC championships while compiling a 469-257 (.646) overall record. She is 169-134 (.558) in the ACC and has guided Maryland to national Final Four appearances in 1978, 1982 and 1989.

In 1995, she became just the fifth coach in women's college basketball history to earn at least 400 victories at the same school. Three years earlier, her Terps were No. 1-ranked for a month, which led to her naming as the 1992 Naismith and USBWA National Coach of the Year.

Chris Weller

Jones, Katsock Join Terp Staff

The Maryland women's basketball family welcomed two new members this year in assistant coaches Allison Jones (St. John's '81) and Jocelyn Katsock (New York University '91). Jones was a head coach at Hartford for seven seasons, and most recently was a draft consultant for the Los Angeles Sparks. Prior to joining the Terps this summer, Katsock was an assistant with her alma mater for the past nine years after notching a stellar four-year playing career with the Violets.

Head Coach • 26th Season at Maryland • Maryland '66

Averaging nearly 20 wins per season and having completed 25 seasons as head coach of her alma mater, there are not many, if any, college basketball experiences that Chris Weller has missed. Her achievements have been remarkable and her contributions to the growth of collegiate women's basketball are documented with the best known coaches in the game. She embarks on her 26th Terrapin season boasting, and hoping to build upon, the following list of notables:

- Weller is one of a very small handful of college coaches, men's or women's, to coach 25 seasons at the same institution.
- Weller became only the fifth NCAA Division I coach to earn at least 400 victories at a single institution.
- The Terrapins have been ranked in the Top 10 nationally nine times and the Top 25 on 14 occasions.
- Maryland earned a No. 1 ranking in the nation during much of the 1992 campaign.
- She has guided the Terps to 10 Sweet 16 appearances.
- Weller-guided teams have advanced to national championship tournaments in 16 of the last 22 seasons.
- Every class of athletes that Weller has brought to Maryland has reached the NCAA or AIAW national tournament, and all but four classes since 1975 have participated in at least one Sweet Sixteen. All but five have advanced to the Elite Eight.

In addition to Weller's accomplishments, her players have experienced personal success as well. The Terrapin program has produced five Olympians, three Kodak All-Americans, 28 athletes who have participated on national teams and at least five players currently active in professional basketball. But Terrapin success goes far beyond the basketball court: it extends into the classroom as well. Since 1980, all but one athlete who finished her eligibility earned a diploma. This is a tribute to Weller's high expectations for her student-athletes both on and off the court.

Taking over the program in 1975 from Dottie McKnight, success came quickly for Chris Weller. The Terps produced a 20-win season her first year and advanced to the EAIAW Regional Tournament for the first time in program history. The following season she coached the Terps to a final season ranking of 13th, the first of eight consecutive seasons the Terps finished ranked in the Top 20. In 1978 Maryland made its first trip to the national championship recording a 27-4 record, winning the first-ever Atlantic Coast Conference championship and advancing to the AIAW Final Four in Los Angeles, Calif. Maryland went on to win four more conference championships in the following five years along with its second trip to the Final Four in 1982. From 1976 to 1982, the Terps recorded five 20-win seasons and compiled a 151-46 mark.

Maryland advanced to the Sweet 16 both in 1983 and 1984 and the Elite Eight in 1988. The 1989 squad won a school record 29 games that included a 21-game win streak, advanced to the Terps' third Final Four appearance and finished fifth in the Associated Press poll. Maryland averaged a school-record 85.3 points per game in 1989, outscoring its opponents by an average of 19 points per game. Weller was named the ACC and American Sports Foundation's Coach of the Year in 1989.

Ranked 15th in the 1992 preseason poll, the Terps reached the No. 1 ranking in both the Associated Press and USA Today polls for the first time in school history. On January 21, with a record of 15-1, the Terps garnered the top spot and stayed No. 1 through February 11. During that stretch, the largest crowd to ever witness a regular season ACC game took place when the No. 1 Terrapins met the second-ranked Virginia Cavaliers before a sellout crowd of 14,500 at Cole Field House. Maryland finished the season with a 25-6 mark and a final ranking of No. 8. Weller was honored by the press and coaching fraternity for her efforts. She was recognized as the 1992 Naismith National Coach of the Year, the Basketball Writer's Association of America Coach of the Year, as well as the Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year.

Maryland appeared again in the NCAA championship in 1993 and 1997.

Last season, Weller led the Terps back to the postseason as they advanced to the Women's National Invitational Tournament quarterfinals with a 16-15 record. The 1999-00 season was also highlighted by a pair of upsets over top 20 teams, No. 12 Duke and No. 16 Virginia.

Weller's basketball knowledge and coaching expertise has extended beyond the confines of Cole Field House. She was an assistant coach for the U.S. National Jones Cup Team in 1985 and the head coach of the U.S. Select Team in 1986, 1992 and 1994. Weller was also a chairperson of the WBCA Legislative Committee and has served on the Kodak All-America and U.S. Olympic committees.

A 1966 Maryland graduate, Weller was a four-year varsity letterwinner in basketball and also participated on the swimming and lacrosse squads. Following graduation, she taught and coached at John F. Kennedy High School in nearby Silver Spring, Md.

A popular speaker and teacher of the game, Weller returned to Maryland for her master's degree in 1973 and became an assistant for two seasons under Dottie McKnight. In 1975, the Weller dynasty began as she was elevated to head coach.

On and Off the Court

christy Winters Scott

Assistant Coach • 4th season at Maryland • Maryland '90

Christy Winters Scott begins her fourth year on Coach Weller's staff and returns to College Park with a wealth of knowledge and experience as both a player and coach. Her background as a former Terrapin player and a keen loyalty to the Washington area have helped secure her position as a popular figure in the Maryland program for fans and players, alike.

She is an active local recruiter as well as the organizer of the Terps' scouting program. She works specifically with Maryland's post players.

Winters Scott was a four-year letterwinner with the Terrapins from 1986 to 1990. In 1989, she helped Maryland win its eighth Atlantic Coast Conference championship and reach its third Final Four. As a senior, Winters was a first team All-Atlantic Coast Conference and Kodak All-East Region selection as she led the Terps in scoring with 533 points (17.8 ppg).

The Reston, Va., native is the second all-time leading scorer at Maryland with 1,679 points, fourth in rebounding with 723 and first in career games played with 123. Winters is one of only two players to score more than 700 field goals (703) at Maryland. Winters also ranks in the all-time top 10 at Maryland in games started (4th with 100), blocked shots (5th with 91) and field goal percentage (6th with .537).

Before returning to her alma mater, Winters Scott spent a total of four seasons as an assistant coach at George Mason working with post players and handling the recruiting efforts for the Patriots. From 1991 to 1992 she played professionally for Pamela Sud in Pistoia, Italy, and in 1993 and 1994 she played and coached professionally for City Fribourg in Switzerland. In 1994 she was the league's leading scorer, averaging 37 points and 13 rebounds per game while playing for European Cup semi-finalist City Fribourg.

Winters Scott earned her degree in communications and has done broadcasting work for Home Team Sports and hosted a segment of "Jam Session" syndicated on NBC. For the last three years, she has co-produced and co-hosted "The Roundball Report" on CTV in Prince Georges County, Md.

She is the all-time leading scorer at South Lakes High School, having amassed 1,785 points and over 1,000 rebounds. She was the 1986 Washington Post All-Met Player of the Year, Gatorade Player of the Year and Parade All-America selection.

1999☆00 Season Review

Maryland captured the 1999 Terrapin Classic championship

Terrapins Reach NIT Quarterfinals

March Madness

Actually, the Terps experienced the madness beginning in February.

Maryland's turnaround story included a 22-game run into its schedule without ever suffering consecutive losses. After a 63-62 win at No. 10 Duke on Feb. 2, Maryland was 13-8 and indeed one of the nation's most noted surprise teams. From out of nowhere, though, Maryland was dealt four straight losses and its 76-71 win over ACC champ and No. 16 Virginia on Feb. 24 would become its lone win the rest of the regular season.

Maryland finished the 2000 regular season with a 14-13 mark and a No. 7 seed in the ACC Tournament. Thoughts of a tournament run vanished at the same time the Terps lost a 13-point lead and were ousted in a first round game by Florida State. Then there was practice for a week without another confirmed game to play.

Then, after accepting a postseason bid and two WNIT wins later, March continued with the Lady Terps beating Georgetown and Virginia Tech, and battling Florida in the quarterfinals of the WNIT — only three wins shy of a national postseason title.

Reaching the Elite Eight

Whether NIT, NCAA or AIAW, Maryland's visit to Gainesville, Fla., on March 21 marked its first trip to a national postseason tournament's Elite Eight since 1992, and its ninth overall.

The Terps were No. 1 ranked for nearly a month in 1992 before ending their season in the NCAA Elite Eight, the same as they did four seasons earlier in 1988.

Maryland has advanced to a pair of NCAA Final Fours (1982 and 1989), the AIAW national title game in 1978 and three consecutive AIAW quarterfinal rounds.

Youthful Terps

The Terps routinely played seven freshmen and sophomores among their top eight players.

— Freshmen and sophomores accounted for 110 starting assignments (71.0%) in 31 games. In 20 of its last 24 games, four out of five starters were freshmen or sophomores.

— Freshmen and sophomores at Maryland accounted for more starting assignments than at any other ACC school.

— Terp freshmen and sophomores accounted for 68.8% of Maryland minutes per game.

— Looking ahead ahead to next season, the Terps will miss just one starter, Tiffany Brown, and will not have a single senior in the 2000-2001 lineup.

Winning In Ohhh-vertime

Maryland's WNIT overtime win at Virginia Tech was the Terps' biggest win of the season. The upstart Terrapins battled wire-to-wire and staged a late comeback to force the extra session after leading by as many as 15 points in the first half.

The win over the 1999 NCAA Sweet Sixteen participants marked the first overtime session by a Maryland team since Feb. 12, 1998 against Clemson. It was the Terps' first overtime win since Feb. 4, 1998 against Wake Forest — two games earlier.

Terrapin seniors Branka Bogunovic, Tiffany Brown and Cara Ferris celebrate the 1999 Terrapin Classic title

ACC Has Best Percentage

The Atlantic Coast Conference successfully placed 78 percent of its members into last year's women's NCAA and NIT tournaments — a mark higher than any other conference.

Five ACC members — Clemson, Duke, North Carolina, NC State and Virginia — were selected to the NCAA Tournament, with Georgia Tech and Maryland earning bids in the WNIT. Only Florida State and Wake Forest were left out.

The Southeastern Conference was the only league to send more schools to postseason play, though out of 12 institutions, its nine teams in postseason play were a lower percentage — 75% — than the ACC.

The Big 12 and SEC both received six bids to the NCAA Tournament. The ACC was next with five.

Freshman Vicki Brick had the second most steals i a single-season in Maryland history with 95.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Freshman guard Renneika Razor, playing in her college debut, scored 14 points to lead a balanced attack as the Maryland Terrapins downed visiting Loyola 75-62 at Cole Field House. In the season opener for both schools, Maryland led from the opening tip and was never seriously challenged.

Razor shot 7 of 9 from the field and scored on consecutive trips down the floor to give the Terps their largest lead of the contest, 60-45, with 6:20 to play. She lifted Maryland (1-0) to a 13-point advantage, then its largest, with 7:17 to play on a slashing layup, and nearly a minute later, added a putback jumper to force the Greyhounds into a timeout.

Loyola closed to within 66-60 on a three-point play by Erica Rath with 1:41 remaining, but it was the only stretch in which the Greyhounds closed with a double-digit lead. Rath led the Greyhounds with 15 points and Katie Netherton scored 11.

Overall, Razor was just one of seven Terrapins with seven points or more. The Terrapins' depth helped force 30 Loyola turnovers, contributed 16 steals and resulted in 73 shots for Maryland compared to just 41 for Loyola.

Gm 3 • Maryland 82, Coppin State 65

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Four players scored in double figures, including a career-high 19 points by freshman Vicki Brick, to lead Maryland past Coppin State, 82-65, in the opening round of the Terrapin Classic women's basketball tournament.

On its home floor, Maryland (2-1) erased an early deficit to coast to the non-conference win and advance to the championship game for the 10th time in the tournament's 10 seasons.

The Terps brought a 14-point lead from the locker room at halftime, and never led by fewer the rest of the game. Maryland led by as many as 24 points, 68-44, with 9:33 remaining as it defeated the Lady Eagles in the Terrapin Classic opening round for the second straight year.

It wasn't always easy for the Terps, though, who found themselves trailing 25-16 midway through the first half as Coppin State (0-1) hit four of five 3-point attempts including three by Liesha Mitchell. Mitchell scored 11 of the Eagles' first 25 points as Coppin State threatened to upend the Terps for the first time in five meetings. Maryland, however, ended the half by outscoring Coppin State 29-6.

Brick sparked the first half surge with 14 points and five steals in the opening period. Other top contributions came from Tiffany Brown with 16 points, and double-double efforts by Deedee Warley and Branka Bogunovic. Warley ended with 15 points and 11 rebounds, Bogunovic had 10 points and 12 boards.

Kiesha Brooks scored a game-high 26 points with 12 rebounds to pace the Lady Eagles and Mitchell finished with 15.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Tiffany Brown played all 40 minutes of the Terrapin Classic championship game, and scored 11 points to go with seven rebounds and four assists to lead Maryland to a 58-54 victory over UNC Charlotte. Brown iced the win with free throws down the stretch as the Terrapins won their own tournament for the fourth straight season.

Maryland, 3-1, saw a 52-41 lead evaporate in the second half as UNCC scored nine straight points to pull within 52-50 with 55 seconds remaining. From that point, though, Brown hit 4 of 5 free throws in the final minute and Rosita Melbourne knocked down a pair as Maryland held on.

UNC Charlotte, 2-3, got a bucket from Jameka Jones with seven seconds remaining to cut the Maryland lead to two, but Brown iced the game with two charity baskets one second later.

Brown, selected to the all-tournament team alongside teammates Marché Strickland and Vicki Brick, was also the catalyst of a second-half run that produced its 11-point lead. After the 49ers grabbed their only lead of the game at 33-32, Brown put the lead back in Maryland's favor at 34-33 with 14:04 to play. She added an assist, a steal and another layin as Maryland built the lead to seven. A jumper by Strickland and a layin by Brick put the Terps ahead by 11.

Strickland led the Terps with 15 points while Brick, the tournament MVP following a 19-point, 9-rebound and seven steal effort in a first round win over Coppin State, finished with 11.

Gm 5 • Maryland 95, F. Dickinson 60

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Tiffany Brown and Marché Strickland each scored 21 points and Maryland set school records for 3-pointers and assists as the Terps downed Fairleigh Dickinson 95-60 at Cole Field House. Maryland's 95 points and its 4-1 start are the school's best in three seasons.

Brown and Strickland laced FDU's zone defense with a barrage of 3-pointers, helping Maryland shoot 11 of 25 from long distance. Brown matched her own school record with seven 3-pointers and Strickland added four as the Terps' 11 bombs established the new school standard. Maryland also had four different players, Brown and Strickland included, distribute at least five assists as the Terps set the mark for most assists in a game, 32.

Maryland began slowly as it studied the Knights' sagging zone. However, Brown buried her first 3-pointer for a 10-6 lead and the Terps never looked back as they outscored FDU 43-17 the rest of the half. Maryland led by as many as 37 points late in the game, and the Knights never crept closer than a 20-point difference.

Gm 6 • (9/12) N. Carolina 92, Maryland 79

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – LaQuanda Barksdale scored 22 points and Nikki Teasley added 18 as North Carolina held off upset-minded Maryland, 92-79, in the Atlantic Coast Conference opener for both teams.

Maryland (4-2, 0-1 ACC) started its sixth different lineup in six games, and nearly found the right matchup for the No. 6 Tar Heels who have beaten the Terrapins in four straight meetings. Deedee Warley scored 26 points and added nine rebounds to lead a feisty Maryland team that threatened to beat a nationally-ranked opponent for the first time since an ACC Tournament upset of NC State two years ago.

North Carolina (4-1, 1-0 ACC) led by as many as 11 in the first half before the Terps cut the lead to three with 1:20 before the intermission and played toe-to-toe the rest of the way. Teasley's 3-pointer at the end of the first half staked UNC to a 10-point lead, 43-33, but the Terrapins repeatedly cut the margin and even knotted the score at 61 with 9:48 to play.

The Terrapins trailed by 14 with a minute gone in the second period and to get to 61-61, outscored UNC 19-5. Down 59-48 with 13:38 to play, Maryland turned up its pressure defense and used persistent offensive rebounding from Warley and Rosita Melbourne to pull within 61-54. Maryland then scored seven straight points to change the complexion of the game. For the game, Maryland forced Carolina into a season-high 19 turnovers.

Maryland never led, however, and North Carolina slowly stretched its lead back to 10 with 3:46 remaining at 77-67. A pair of 3-pointers by Tiffany Brown twice cut the deficit to seven, but a Teasley trey and 12 free throws in the last three minutes ended the Maryland rally.

Gm 7 • Maryland 65, Howard 58

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Marché Strickland scored 15 points and Branka Bogunovic added 14 Wednesday night as Maryland outlasted cross-town rival Howard University, 65-58 in women's college basketball action.

Strickland, a sophomore guard, scored in double figures for the fourth straight game to lead the Terrapins (5-2) to their 24th win over the Lady Bison in 25 meetings. The Maryland win avenged Howard's 18-point victory last season.

Howard (2-5) enjoyed a 50-46 rebounding advantage and outshot the Terrapins until the game's final stages. In the end, Howard shot just 34 percent with Maryland hitting at a 35 percent clip.

The Lady Bison knotted the score at 45 with 10:07 to play and a dogfight ensued to the finish. Maryland overcame four lead changes and two tie scores the rest of the way, but took control 54-50 on Strickland's 3-pointer with 5:33 to play. Rosita Melbourne's basket following a stolen inbounds pass gave the Terps a 56-50 cushion, and Maryland led by as many as seven, 59-52, on a free throw by Vicki Brick with 4:13 remaining – but Howard wouldn't go away. The Bison closed within four points in the final minute, but never got closer.

Gm 8 • Maryland 66, Robert Morris 57

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Senior guard Tiffany Brown scored 14 second-half points to lead four double-figure scorers and guide Maryland to a 66-57 non-conference women's basketball victory over Robert Morris.

Maryland, 6-2 as compared to an 0-8 beginning in 1998-99, finished an eight-game homestand. The Terrapins overcame cold shooting and a sluggish start to turn back the Colonials, 2-4, and win their fifth game in the last six outings. Overall, Maryland shot 36 percent to just 33 percent for the visitors.

Brown entered the game as the Terps' leading scorer, but was shut out until a 3-pointer beat the buzzer at halftime to stake Maryland to a 31-22 lead. She twice hit 3-point baskets in the second half to lift the Terps to 11-point margins. Brown dished to Branka Bogunovic for a 48-35 lead, and Cara Ferris' bucket with 10:45 to play capped a seven-point run to give Maryland its largest lead, 50-35.

Robert Morris cut the lead to seven with 2:27 remaining on a trey by Mysty Bekavac, but five free throws by Brown and four by Deedee Warley in the final two minutes helped secure Maryland's sixth win of the season, matching its entire total from 1998-99. Brown finished with 17 points, seven rebounds and five assists. Warley had 14 points,

Gm 11 • Maryland 98, Brown 47

CORAL GABLES, Fla. – Tiffany Brown matched a season-high with 21 points for the second straight game, and Marché Strickland and Deedee Warley added 20 and 16 points, respectively, as Maryland raced to a 98-47 consolation victory over Brown in the Gatorade Hurricane Holiday Classic.

Maryland's scoring and 51-point margin of victory were the Terps' largest since a 102-31 win over Maryland-Eastern Shore on Dec. 28, 1993.

After falling to eventual tournament champion and defending WAC champ SMU in the tournament's opening round, Maryland (8-3) leaped to a 29-8 lead over the Bears with just 10 minutes gone in the first half. The Terrapins coasted to a 51-26 halftime margin on the strength of 16 points apiece by Strickland and Warley. Brown and Strickland each had three 3-pointers by the intermission and the Terps' pressure had forced 22 turnovers with 12 steals.

Defensive pressure and Maryland's transition game told the entire story of the game. Overall, Maryland turned 37 Brown turnovers into 46 points. Maryland registered 23 steals including a career-high six by Tiffany Brown who was the Terps' lone representative on the all-tournament team. In two tournament games, Maryland's ball-hawking defense recorded 40 steals and forced 67 turnovers.

The Bears (4-6) held a 19-14 rebounding edge at halftime, but foul trouble helped the Terps to a 30-17 second-half rebounding advantage as Maryland's bench extended the lead. Key to the second half surge was a six-minute stretch in which Maryland held the Bears without a field goal, going on a 14-4 run to extend the lead to 69-36. The Terps outscored Brown 29-11 the rest of the way with significant contributions from freshmen Terri Daniels and Renneika Razor. Daniels finished with seven points and six assists while Razor had six points and a team-high nine rebounds.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Georgia Schweitzer scored a game-high 25 points and led three teammates in double figures to lead No. 14-ranked Duke to a 79-61 Atlantic Coast Conference women's basketball victory over the University of Maryland.

The Blue Devils improved to 13-1 overall and 2-0 in ACC play with their 11th straight victory. The Terps dropped to 8-4 overall and 0-2 in ACC action.

Schweitzer connected on 8 of 12 shots from the field, including 4 of 7 from 3-point range, and also pulled down nine rebounds. Peppi Browne added 21 points and a game-high 11 rebounds, and Krista Gingrich added 14 points. Maryland was led by Marche Strickland, who had 14 points, and Deedee Warley, who chipped in 12.

Duke, last year's NCAA runner-up, shot 53.8 percent from the field for the game, including a blistering 66.7 percent in the second half, to overcome 20 turnovers. The Terps shot 37.5 percent from the field for the game and just 29.7 percent in the second half.

The Terps, who trailed 35-31 at halftime, fell behind by 11 points midway through the second half but rallied to close to within four, 60-56, with 7:32 remaining. But Duke responded with a 13-1 run – including seven points by Browne – to go up 73-57 with 2:35 left. The Terps could get no closer.

Gm 13 • Maryland 74, Clemson 58

CLEMSON, SC – Tiffany Brown knocked down eight 3-point field goals and scored a career-high 29 points to lead Maryland to a 74-58 Atlantic Coast Conference victory over Clemson. Brown, a senior guard, scored six 3-pointers in the first half as Maryland stunned the defending ACC champs and recorded its largest victory margin ever at Littlejohn Coliseum.

Maryland's first four baskets were behind the arc, two apiece by Brown and sophomore Marché Strickland. Clemson captured its only lead of the game at 1S-14 before the Terrapins scored 12 unanswered points and raced to a 26-1S lead. Maryland (9-4, 1-2 ACC) never led by fewer than eight points the rest of the way, taking a 41-27 lead into the intermission and leading by as many as 17 early in the second half.

A mini-run of eight points by the Tigers closed the gap to 49-40 with 10:47 to play, but Rosita Melbourne ended the drought for a S1-40 lead and a driving jumper by Brown pushed the lead to 13 again. The Tigers never drew closer than 10 points in the final nine minutes.

Brown, who beat her own school record for 3-pointers (formerly seven, twice including once this season against Fairleigh Dickinson), shot 9 of 17 from the floor including 8 of 16 from long-distance. Melbourne, a sophomore center, enjoyed a career-high night as well, scoring 1S points mostly in the second half when the Tigers were forced to contend with Maryland's hot perimeter shooting. Melbourne also had a game-high 10 rebounds to record the first double-double of her career.

Also in double figures for Maryland, which recorded its largest margin of victory in an ACC road game in four seasons, was Strickland who netted 12. Strickland, who also added a career-high nine rebounds, combined with Brown for 10 3-pointers, falling one shy of a team school record set last month against Fairleigh Dickinson.

RALEIGH, N.C. - Maryland stayed close with No. 3 North Carolina State until the Wolfpack showed they had a tough defense to go with their balanced offense. Summer Erb had 19 points and nine rebounds and NC State held Maryland to one basket in the final S:46 of a 71-52 victory

Tynesha Lewis added six points in the final 3:25 to finish with 1S points and five assists for the Wolfpack (14-0, S-0 ACC) who extended its best start in school history.

Tiffany Brown led Maryland (9-S, 1-3) with 12 points on four 3-pointers to help the Terrapins stay close until the final minutes. Terri Daniels added a career-high 10 points, including seven of the Terrapins' last 11 points.

The Terrapins narrowed the lead to S1-46 following Daniels' 3-pointer with S:16 to play. But Maryland missed five of its last six tries from the floor and went scoreless during the final 2:22.

"I thought all along the game would be close, and, if we could stay close down to the wire, we'd have a chance to pull it out," Maryland coach Chris Weller said. "The numbers were going the way we would have liked. We were doing fine. It was a five-point game. Then — kah-blooey."

NC State closed the game with a 20-6 run, hitting 11 of its 14 free throws. Ivy Gardner and Amy Simpson came off the bench to score 12 apiece for NC State.

Erb hit four of her first seven shots from the floor to score 10 points and help the Wolfpack to a 27-1B halftime lead. Erb, last year's ACC player of the year, led N.C. State's domination on the boards as the Wolfpack outrebounded Maryland S2-26.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Sophomore Marche Strickland scored a career-high 24 points and sophomore Rosita Melbourne recorded the second double-double of her career as Maryland outlasted Florida State for the 6B-67 victory at Cole Field House.

Melbourne, who recorded a career-high 14 rebounds to go with 10 points, converted the second of two free throws with 1S.4 seconds remaining in regulation to reach her double-double and give Maryland

(10-5, 2-3 ACC) the winning margin, breaking a 67-67 tie. The Seminoles (7-7, 0-4 ACC) missed on a pair of final opportunities in the waning seconds — April Traylor missed a runner in the lane with six seconds left and after an FSU timeout Angela Sutton missed a leaning jumper as time expired.

Melbourne's eight points and eight rebounds in the first half helped Maryland gain a 35-32 halftime lead. Strickland scored 14 second-half points, including all three of her 3-point attempts, as the Terps withstood eight second half lead changes and five ties — and a game-high 28 points by FSU's Latavia Coleman. Coleman shot 10 of 12 from the floor though the rest of the Seminoles combined to shoot just 33 percent (17 of 51).

Maryland hit six three-pointers in the game to fall one shy of the school single-season record (77) set in 1996-97. Individually, senior Tiffany Brown scored three 3-point baskets to leave her just two shy of tying her own single-season trifecta mark of 48 also set in '96-97.

It was Maryland's closest margin of victory since a 54-53 win over Duke on Jan. 30, 1998.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. - On the eighth anniversary date of one of women's college basketball's most memorable games, it didn't matter that it wasn't top-ranked Virginia hosting No. 3-ranked Maryland. Proving the longtime rivalry between the schools is still hotly contested, the Cavs and Terps waged a 40-minute battle including 15 lead changes and 10 ties before Virginia outlasted Maryland 76-68.

Junior forward Svetlana Volnaya scored 17 of her 28 points in the second half to lift Virginia. Volnaya was 6 of 7 from the field and hit two 3-pointers all in the second half. Maryland senior guard Tiffany Brown sank six 3-pointers to lead the Terps with 25 points.

Virginia (12-4 overall, 4-1 ACC) trailed by four points at halftime, 36-32, before Volnaya ignited a 7-2 run to start the second half. Her jumper at 18:16 put Virginia ahead by one, 42-41 for Virginia's first lead since the 10:06 mark of the first half. The lead changed hands on nearly every possession for the next 10:18 of the second half before Volnaya's running jumper at the 7:58 mark put Virginia in the lead for good.

Maryland's Renneika Razor hit a 10-foot jumper in the lane to bring Maryland within one, 64-63, with 7:03 left, but Maryland connected on only 2 of 6 free throws during the 10-minute stretch which saw the Cavaliers begin to take control. Virginia, meanwhile, was 8 of 9 from the line during that stretch and hit 22 of 25 free throws overall.

After Maryland (10-6, 2-4 ACC) opened the game with a 14-4 lead and Virginia did a turnabout with a 16-4 run of its own, neither team ever led by more than four points until Lisa Hosac's pair of free throws gave the Cavs a 70-64 advantage with 4:01 remaining. Maryland twice drew within four on jumpers from Razor and Deedee Warley, but never closer.

Warley and fellow sophomore Rosita Melbourne each had 11 for the Terrapins who rode Brown's sharp-shooting most of the afternoon.

Brown, the ACC leader with 4.3 treys through six league contests, scored a 3-pointer on the game's first basket and netted five bombs in the first half, alone, to break her own UM season mark. She and Marche Strickland combined for eight triples on the afternoon, helping shatter the team record for season 3-pointers.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - Five Terrapins scored in double figures as Maryland handed Wake Forest a 73-61 defeat in an ACC women's basketball contest at Lawrence Joel Veterans Memorial Coliseum.

Maryland (11-6 overall, 3-4 ACC) jumped out to an 8-0 lead as the Deacs missed their first seven shots of the game. Wake Forest (6-11, 2-4) then used a 12-3 run to take the lead on a six-foot jumper by LaChina Robinson. Renneika Razor answered with a jump shot from the left corner to restore the Terps' lead, and Maryland never trailed again. The Terrapins led 37-23 at halftime and went up by as many as 17 in the second period. Wake cut the lead to seven on a Heather Miller layup with 2:47 to go but could not get any closer.

The Terps scored nearly half of their points at the foul line, converting 33 of 47 free throws. A combined total of 50 personal fouls were called in the game, and five WFU players, including four starters, finished the game with four fouls apiece. Wake outrebounded Maryland 49-39, including a 33-13 differential in the second half, but the Deacs committed 20 turnovers and shot just 35 percent from the floor.

Deedee Warley led the Terrapins with 18 points, 12 of which came at the foul line. Tiffany Brown added 15 points, while Marché Strickland had 13 and Vicki Brick added 11. Razor posted a double-double for the Terps with 13 points and 11 rebounds.

Brenda Mock Kirkpatrick led Wake Forest with 18 points and 11 rebounds. Robinson added 14 points for the Deacs and Alisha Mosley contributed 12.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Junior forward Regina Tate shot 7 of 9 from the floor and scored 15 points to pace four double-figure scorers and lead Georgia Tech to a 73-67 Atlantic Coast Conference road victory over Maryland. Tech outdueled the Terrapins in a battle of ACC fourth-place teams, outlasting Maryland despite a flurry of last-minute 3-pointers by sophomore Marché Strickland.

Tate scored 11 of her 15 while shooting 5 of 6 from the floor in the first half. As a team, the Yellow Jackets shot 59 percent in the opening 20 minutes while jumping to a 34-22 lead at the intermission. Georgia Tech (11-7, 4-4 ACC) pushed its lead to 14 to open the second half. Three times, Maryland (11-7, 3-5) cut the margin to eight, and each time the Jackets answered by pushing the margin back to 14.

After Maryland's Vicki Brick hit a driving layup to narrow the margin to 51-42 with 7:32 remaining, Jamie Kruppa helped direct an 11-0 run to post the Yellow Jackets to a 62-42 lead and seemingly put the game away. Kruppa scored six points during the run while finishing with 14 overall, all in the second half. She added a game-high 12 rebounds, but it nearly wasn't enough as Strickland, remarkably, almost single-handedly brought the Terps back into contention.

Strickland, who finished with a career-high 32 points, drained five consecutive 3-pointers in a 65-second span to end the contest and bring Maryland as close as it had been since late in the first half.

After missing her first three attempts behind the arc, Strickland hit her first of the game with 4:54 remaining to cut Tech's lead to 62-45. The Jackets maintained their 17-point advantage until 1:05 remained and Strickland made it 69-55. Her third straight brought Maryland within 69-58 with 38 seconds remaining, and buried three more in between foul shots and timeouts to cut Georgia Tech's lead to 10, eight and finally six points with only :04 on the clock. Georgia Tech hit four free throws in the final minute as Strickland scored 15 points of her own.

COLLEGE PARK, Md - Sophomore guard Marché Strickland scored 15 points and sophomore forward Deedee Warley pitched-in 14 as Maryland defeated St. Bonaventure 71-55 in a non-conference women's basketball game at Cole Field House.

Strickland shot 6 of 14 from the floor and added a pair of 3-pointers to lead the Terrapins to their 12th victory of the season, doubling their win total from a 6-21 season in 1998-99. She also matched a career-high with nine rebounds.

Maryland (12-7) took control of the contest early by limiting St. Bonaventure (8-10) to just 19 points in the opening period. Maryland led 23-16 with 4:16 to play in the first half, but ran off nine straight points and outscored the Bonnies 11-3 the rest of the half to boast a 34-19 advantage at the intermission. Maryland led by as many as 20 in the second half, and the Bonnies never drew closer than 12.

Strickland, who collected seven rebounds in the first half, helped Maryland to a 43-32 rebounding edge that proved critical. St. Bonaventure (46.2 percent) outshot Maryland (39.4 percent) from the field, but 17 Terrapin steals resulted in 29 turnovers, and combined with 20 offensive rebounds, Maryland repeatedly got extra chances.

Gm 21 • Maryland 63, (12/10) Duke 62

DURHAM, N.C. — Deedee Warley made two free throws with 10.5 seconds left as Maryland held off a furious second-half rally by No. 12/10 Duke and beat the Blue Devils 63-62 to end their ACC home court win streak at 20 games.

The Terrapins (13-8, 4-6), alternating wins and losses in their last 13 games, avenged a 79-61 defeat on January 3 by overcoming 25 turnovers and an 11-of-24 effort from the free throw line. A first half flurry of 3-point field goals staked the Terps to a 34-29 lead at the intermission as Tiffany Brown and Marché Strickland combined for 7 of 11 shooting behind the arc in the first 20 minutes.

Maryland led by as many as 14 points in the second half before Duke went on a 14-3 run to cut the Terrapin lead to three, 51-48, with 5:28 remaining in the second half. Maryland was able to extend the lead to eight at the 3:23 mark but the Blue Devils made one final run as they outscored the Terrapins 8-2 in the final 2:30 of the game.

Duke freshman Michele Matyasovsky scored on a layup assisted by Krista Gingrich, which cut the lead to 61-59 at the 39.8 mark. But Warley hit a pair of free throws with 10.5 seconds left after she was fouled with one second remaining on the shot clock.

The Blue Devils came down the court and Gingrich nailed a three-pointer with 3.6 seconds remaining to cut the lead to one. Maryland was able to run out the final 3.6 seconds to win the game.

Marché Strickland and Deedee Warley paced the Terrapins with 19 points and 18 points, respectively. Tiffany Brown added 14 points, 12 of which came in the first half.

"It's a very big, big, big win for us," said Maryland head coach Chris Weller. "It's an emotional win. We've had some close games. At the infamous portion of the second half, about the 8:00 mark, we've kind of given-in to the other team's pressure and poise. This time we demonstrated some poise of our own, and I'm real proud of our team."

For Maryland it marked the Terrapins' first win against a ranked opponent since Feb. 27, 1998 and their first road win against a ranked opponent since Feb. 22, 1997. It was the Terps' first road win against a top 10 opponent since Jan. 6, 1993 at No. 3 Clemson.

Duke (18-4, 7-3) was led by Lauren Rice with 17 points, while Georgia Schweitzer scored 16, and Matyasovsky added 14. Senior Peppi Browne did not dress for the second game in a row after suffering a torn ACL the previous week. It was Duke's first ACC loss at home since Feb. 19, 1997 vs. Virginia.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — Freshman guard Chrissy Floyd scored 17 points and added a late free throw to lead Clemson a 59-57 victory over Maryland. The Tigers avenged an earlier 16-point loss to the Terrapins and stretched its lead over Maryland in the Atlantic Coast Conference standings.

Marché Strickland's 3-point attempt at the final buzzer was off the back rim as Clemson sealed its fourth straight victory and helped continued a Maryland cycle of alternating wins and losses over its last 14 games. Clemson, 15-7 overall and 6-4 in the ACC, withstood six second half lead changes and two ties to take a late lead and overcome a 24-22 halftime deficit.

Floyd scored nine of her team-high points in the second half including the first of two free throw attempts with 54 seconds in regulation. Clemson led 59-56 and both teams combined for three turnovers in the final minute before Strickland was fouled by Floyd with just 10 seconds remaining. Strickland hit the front end of two shots and after Maryland claimed the alternating possession on a loose ball rebound, the Terps setup the final play in a pair of back-to-back timeouts with two seconds on the clock. Strickland came loose off a double screen at the top of the key, but her shot was long as the Tigers escaped with the win.

Renneika Razor fueled the Terps' second half run with 11 consecutive points, but Angie Cossey's 3-pointer staked the Tigers to a 50-47 lead that it never relinquished, with just over five minutes to play. Maryland, 13-9 oveall and 4-7 in the ACC, assumed its largest lead at 28-24 and the Tigers led by as many as five, 54-49, after two free throws by Cossey with 4:04 remaining.

Trailing by five at the four-minute mark, Strickland scored a three-point play to cut the Tiger lead to two and after a basket by Floyd, Tiffany Brown hit a 3-point bomb for a 56-55 score. Clemson forward Nuria Forns scored in the lane to push its lead to three, but Warley answered with a foul shot for a two-point margin to setup Floyd's free throw and the final minute of play.

In the first half, Maryland rode Warley's inside game, shooting 6 of 7 from the floor and providing exactly half of the Terrapins' offense. Maryland raced to a 12-2 lead before the Tigers battled back to an 18-17 lead and scoring 10 consecutive points in one stretch. Warley, however, scored six of Maryland's seven points in a 7-0 run to recapture a 24-20 lead. Floyd scored a baseline jumper as the half expired for a 24-22 difference at intermission.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — No. 8-ranked North Carolina State overcame a late deficit and scored 10 of the game's final 11 points Thursday night as the Atlantic Coast Conference-leading Wolfpack outlasted the Maryland Terrapins, 74-66, at Cole Field House. The Terrapins, 13-10 overall and 4-8 ACC, dropped their second game in a row for only the first time this season.

NC State, 19-4 overall and 10-2 in the ACC, traded offensive bursts with Maryland throughout the first half and well into the second, but a 10-1 Wolfpack run over the final five minutes decided the game. Five Wolfpack players scored in double-figures, led by 15 points apiece from center Kaayla Chones and forward Amy Simpson. Terah James scored 14 points while Talisha Scates had 12 and Tynesha Lewis added 10.

Maryland led by as many as nine points in the first half and enjoyed its largest lead at 51-40 before the 'Pack went on a 19-3 run to assume control with 11.23 to play. The Terps answered, themselves, and led 65-64 after Deedee Warley's pair of free throws gave Maryland its final lead of the contest.

Marché Strickland had a game-high 16 points for the Terrapins, stroking seven out of eight from the free throw line. Warley registered her second double-double of the season with 14 points and 11 boards.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — Latavia Coleman scored a game-high 20 points to lead Florida State to a 66-52 win over Maryland at the Leon County Civic Center.

Aggressive play by both teams resulted in numerous turnovers as each club committed season-highs in the category (FSU 32, Maryland 30) for the game. Maryland scored first and led the Tribe 7-6, but then FSU took over. Coleman hit a layup at 13:34 to regain the advantage for FSU and the Tribe never trailed again. A Brooke Wyckoff driving layup with 5:34 to go gave FSU, 10-13 overall and 3-9 in the ACC, its largest lead of the half at 31-15. Maryland went on a 10-2 run to pull within eight at 33-25 at the break.

Maryland, 13-11 and 4-9, pulled to within five twice in the first five minutes of the second half, but the Seminoles adjusted. Leading 39-34, FSU ran off eight unanswered points to increase its lead to 47-34 with 7:23 left. Ahead 51-40 with under five minutes to play, Florida State outscored the Terrapins 11-2 for its largest lead of the game at 62-42 with 1:55 remaining. Maryland finished the contest strong, scoring 10 of the game's final 14 points, but could not catch the Seminoles.

"FSU outplayed us in every phase of the game," Maryland head coach Chris Weller said. "They played very hard. I apologize for us not giving a better effort."

Marche Strickland led the Terrapins with 13 points and five rebounds while Vicki Brick added 12 points and five assists. Wyckoff tallied double figure points for FSU with 11.

Gm 25 • Wake Forest 57, Maryland 54

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — Maryland shot 32 percent from the floor and just 8 of 19 from the foul stripe as Wake Forest used 13 points from Alisha Mosley and capitalized on the Terps' woeful shooting display to lead the Demon Deacons to a 57-54 come-from-behind victory in Atlantic Coast Conference women's basketball. Wake Forest, which trailed 33-27 at the intermission, snapped an eight-game losing skid and won for the first time in 15 tries this season when trailing at the half.

Maryland, 13-12 overall and 4-10 in the ACC, saw a seven-point lead slip away in the second half, shooting just 9 of 32 from the floor in the final period and connecting on just two of six free throw attempts. A pair of Wake Forest free throws by Val Klopfer staked the Deacs to a 57-54 lead with nine seconds to play and Tiffany Brown's last-second 3-pointer fell off the rim as Wake avenged an earlier loss to Maryland which had begun its recent slide.

Wake Forest, 7-18 and 3-11, rode a pair of Mosley 3-pointers and free throws in the second half to stage its comeback and send the Terrapins to their fourth straight loss since upsetting No. 10-ranked Duke two weeks ago. Mosley knocked down her second trey of the game with 14:10 to play to cut into what was the Terps' largest lead at 40-33. That sparked a 9-2 Deacon run which propelled Wake Forest to a 42-42 tie with 9:07 to play. Mosley canned a pair of charity throws for another tie at 46, and her 3-point basket with 2:41 remaining gave Wake its final lead at 53-52.

LaChina Robinson's layup gave the Demon Deacs a three-point advantage with 2:14 to play, but Vicki Brick answered with a driving layin of her own at 2:01. However, neither team scored again until Klopfer's deciding free throws.

After Brick's bucket, Wake Forest used two offensive rebounds to help whittle the clock all the way under 30 seconds on its ensuing possession and Maryland committed three fouls before forcing Klopfer to the line for a bonus free throw situation with only nine seconds to play.

The disappointing loss for Maryland offset another impressive scoring day for sophomore guard Marche Strickland who had a game-high 23 points including four 3-pointers. Her final 3-point basket broke the tie at 46 with 5:02 to play, and established the Terrapin tandem of Strickland and Tiffany Brown as just the fourth such duo in ACC history both to hit 50 3-pointers in a season. Brown leads the ACC with 66. Strickland, who shot 4 of 8 from beyond the arc against Wake Forest, leads the conference with 43.1 percent accuracy from 3-point range.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — Unheralded and sparsely-used Antonieta Gabriel scored a career-high 21 points and added nine rebounds to help Maryland end a four-game losing skid and defeat No. 16 Virginia, 76-71, at Cole Field House. Maryland beat the Cavaliers for the first time since 1993 and guaranteed at least a .500 season with the win.

The night, though, was Gabriel's. It was senior night, and playing in her home finale, the senior forward shot 9 of 12 from the floor and triggered the end of Virginia's 17-game dominance over the Terrapins.

Drawing a starting assignment and playing 37 minutes, Gabriel had never even taken more than eight shots in a game. Through the entire season had scored only 17 points against Atlantic Coast Conference opponents. Against the Cavs, though, she scored 15 in the second half alone while never leaving the game. Maryland, 14-12 overall and 5-10 in the ACC, opened a nine-point lead, 63-54, on a pair of free throws by senior guard Tiffany Brown with 4:07 to play. A jumper by sophomore Deedee Warley kept the lead at nine with 3:21 to play, and a Gabriel free throw gave the Terps a 72-64 lead with just 49 seconds remaining.

Virginia's Renee Robinson hit a 3-pointer, though, eight seconds later, and after both teams traded free throws, Cavalier freshman Telisha Quarles was fouled behind the 3-point stripe with 27 seconds to play. Quarles missed all three free throw attempts, however, and Vicki Brick's free throw gave Maryland a six-point advantage with only 25 seconds left.

"We tried to keep things as simple as we could tonight," said Maryland coach Chris Weller. "We wanted to let the players feel free and just play. I'm just so excited for Antonieta. She's always been a role player for us who is asked to do all the dirty work. This is her day in the sun."

Virginia, 21-7 and 12-3, shot just 38 percent from the floor and relied on 22 points from Schuye LaRue and 21 from Svetlana Volnaya. Quarles pitched-in 10 points. The Cavs also were outrebounded by the Terrapins, 48-41, marking just the second time in 15 ACC games that Maryland had earned a rebounding advantage. Maryland shot just 30 percent in the first half, but shot 57 percent in the final 20 minutes to secure the win despite going 0 for 11 from 3-point range.

Said Virginia coach Debbie Ryan, "We got plenty of shots, we just didn't knock them down."

The Cavs led by as many as 11 points midway through the opening half, but a 9-0 Terrapin run brought Maryland to a 27-26 lead. Renneika Razor scored five of her 13 points during the run and the game was tied at 29 at the intermission. Warley scored 15 for the Terrapins and March Strickland scored 10.

2000 ACC Tournament

Gm 28 • Florida State 65, Maryland 60

GREENSBORO, N.C. — Deedee Warley scored 25 points, but it was not enough to offset 31 points from Latavia Coleman as No. 8-seed Florida State downed No. 7-seed Maryland in the opening round of the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament.

Coleman was 10-of-11 from the field in the second half and poured in 21 points to help the Seminoles regain the lead after trailing by as many as 13.

Warley's scoring, however, was the most by a Maryland player in an ACC Tournament game since Monica Bennett scored 25 in a triple overtime loss to Virginia in the 1993 championship game. Warley scored 19 of Maryland's 29 second half points, in a virtual head-to-head duel with Coleman.

Warley's second-half explosion followed a first half in which Marché Strickland netted 17 of the Terps' 31.

Maryland led 39-26 early in the second period on a layup by Vicki Brick. However, after the Terps' lead was cut to five, Florida State went on a 10-0 run during which Maryland was scoreless for four minutes.

2000 NIT First Round

Gm 29 • Maryland 63, Georgetown 46

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — Sophomore Deedee Warley scored 13 of her 19 points in the first half as the University of Maryland defeated local rival Georgetown, 63-46, in the first round of the Women's National Invitation Tournament. Maryland, 15-14 and one of seven Atlantic Coast Conference teams qualified for postseason play, advanced to the WNIT second round to face Virginia Tech, an 80-56 winner over Georgia State.

Maryland and Georgetown were re-united in a local series which has been dormant since 1986, but the Hoyas, playing without the Big East Conference's leading scorer, Katie Smrcka-Duffy, never could mount an offense to take command. The Hoyas were limited to just 20 first-half points, and their 46 for the game was the lowest total against a Maryland team since the Terps held Georgia Tech to 42 in 1998.

The Terrapins, meanwhile, got balanced scoring and rebounding while recording its first postseason victory since an NCAA First Round victory over Purdue in 1992. The postseason tournament is Maryland's 16th overall and its sixth since 1990, but its first in three seasons.

After commanding a 34-20 lead at the intermission, the Terps blew the game open in the second half with a 19-6 run and sported their largest lead at 59-36. Freshman point guard Vicki Brick scored 13 points and posted a career-high 10 rebounds to spur the Terps. She also recorded team-highs of four assists and three steals. Sophomore Rosita Melbourne also scored 14 points and had seven rebounds.

Remarkable for the turnaround Terps, just 6-21 one season ago, was the absence of scoring from team leaders Marché Strickland and Tiffany Brown. Strickland scored he only two baskets in the game's final two minutes. Brown, a senior playing in what was likely the final home game of her career, was scoreless for the third straight game after leading Maryland for most of the season.

None of the Hoyas, which ended their season at 17-13, reached double figures, although freshman Shawntese Charles tallied a team-high nine points and junior Nathalie Bourereau grabbed eight rebounds.

2000 NIT Second Round

Gm 30 • Maryland 68, Virginia Tech 60 -ot

BLACKSBURG, Va. — Sophomore forward Deedee Warley scored 24 points and Maryland scored 12 of the final 14 points in overtime as the Terrapins shocked Virginia Tech 68-60 in the second round of the Women's National Invitation Tournament.

The Terrapins, 16-14, scored 12 straight points in the overtime session to advance to an NIT quarterfinal game on Tuesday at Florida. Maryland, which led by as many as 15 in the first half and carried a 30-20 lead into intermission, was forced to come from behind to force the extra period.

In Maryland's first overtime session since 1998, Maryland trailed 56-54 and 58-56 before momentum shifted in the Terps' direction. A charging call against the home team with 2:52 remaining resulted in a momentary stoppage of play to recover ice thrown onto the floor from a hostile crowd of 2,524, and Warley knotted the score at 58 with a second pair of overtime free throws with 3:11 remaining. Maryland never looked back after Vicki Brick's layup gave UM a 60-58 lead midway through the period at 2:34.

Warley followed Brick's layin for a 62-58 lead with 1:46 to play, and after Rosita Melbourne batted away an inside pass after a Virginia Tech timeout, senior guard Tiffany Brown took the steal and the fast break for a six-point advantage. Brown and Marché Strickland each netted a pair of free throws in the final minute of play as Maryland guaranteed its first winning season in three years (15-13 in 1998) and its highest win total since 1997 (18-10).

"We're obviously delighted to be in this situation," said Maryland coach Chris Weller after the win. "Considering that we didn't even know if we'd be in any postseason tournament and considering our record last season, we think this tournament just defines who we are and where this program is headed. This was a great win. We had momentum and then lost it, and then came back in front of a very vocal crowd, on the road, to beat another very good team. I am so proud of this young team. We're going to the NIT quarterfinals."

Warley, one of nine freshmen and sophomores on the Terrapin roster, scored 12 points in the first half as Maryland coasted to an early advantage. Maryland held a 37-24 advantage early in the second half, but that was the last of Maryland's cushion.

Virginia Tech, 20-11 and an NCAA Sweet 16 team last season, embarked on an 24-4 run to spark an excitable crowd and seemingly take control once and for all. Junior forward Tere Williams, who led the Hokies with 22 points, scored five of Tech's first seven points in the run, and Amy Wetzel scored a layin before Maryland's Strickland temporarily broke the run at 9-0. Williams, though, made it 39-35 and Wetzel's 3-pointer brought the Hokies within a point.

Mollie Owings, a former teammate of Warley's at St. John's High School in Maryland, gave Virginia Tech its first lead of the second half, and the Hokies stretched its lead to 48-41 before Warley scored her first bucket of the second half and Maryland fought back.

Maryland went on an 11-4 run, capped by a layin by Renneika Razor, to tie the score at 52. Razor's free throw with 3:14 to play gave the Terps a brief lead before Chrystal Starling's jumper regained the lead for Virginia Tech. Strickland tied the score with 1:32 remaining by hitting the back end of a pair of free throws, and had a chance to put Maryland in the lead with 38 seconds left in regulation, but her driving jumper fell off the rim. Starling's 3-point attempt was off the mark with six seconds in regulation as the game remained tied.

2000 NIT Quarterfinal

Gm 31 • Florida 77, Maryland 57

GAINESVILLE, Fla. — Tiffany Travis led four double-figure scorers on to help lead the Florida Gators to a 71-51 quarterfinal victory over Maryland in the Women's National Invitation Tournament. The Gators, 19-12, advanced to an NIT semifinal matchup with Arkansas.

Maryland, which got 27 points from sophomore guard Marché Strickland, surrendered a 10-1 run midway through the second half to fall behind by 15 points, 56-41, and never challenge thereafter. The Terrapins, who finish the season 16-15, were hampered by foul trouble from the opening tip as inside scoring ace Deedee Warley played just eight minutes of the first half after receiving a pair of whistles just four minutes into the contest.

The Gators led 41-35 at the break despite 16 points and a pair of 3-pointers by Strickland. Maryland cut the lead to 41-38 early in the second half, but Brandi McCain's driving layup and a three-point play by Travis pushed the margin to eight. A Strickland jumper made it 46-40 at the 16:02 mark, but Maryland never got closer. The 10-1 Florida scoring streak featured baskets by four different players over the next five minutes, and the Gators never led by less than 11 the rest of the way.

Tonya Washington added 16 points for Florida, who got 13 from Naomi Mobley and 12 from Tamara Stacks as the Gators won on their home floor for the 11th time in 12 tries this season.

Coaching History

Dottie McKnight

44-17, .721 - 4 Years (1971-75)

The first coach in the varsity era of women's basketball at the University of Maryland, McKnight directed a fledgling program into immediate success. In her four seasons at the Maryland helm, she never had a losing season. Her program was certainly not as established as it would become after her departure, but McKnight, in fact, boasts a better winning percentage than her successor, Chris Weller. McKnight laid claim to Maryland's first state championship in 1973, and won a second in 1975 with Weller as her assistant.

Chris Weller

469-257, .646 - 25 Years (1975-Pres.)

Chris Weller dominates Maryland women's basketball. She has guided her alma mater to a national championship game and to three Final Fours in total. Her Maryland teams have enjoyed national rankings in 14 seasons and she has engineered an unprecedented eight Atlantic Coast Conference championships. In 1995, she became just the fifth coach in women's college history to earn at least 400 victories at the same school. Three years earlier, her Terps were No. 1-ranked for nearly a month and drew to College Park a sellout crowd that still is the largest in history to watch an ACC women's basketball game. She has been a pioneer, architect and engineer to one of the most successful programs in the nation.

Great Teams and Great Moments

Great Moments and Great Teams define Maryland women's basketball since it earned varsity distinction in the 1970s, rising quickly among the nation's elite and maintaining excellence and winning seasons nearly 30 years later. Greatness has been synonymous with Terrapin women's hoops. And synonymous with the Terrapins has been Chris Weller who began her Terrapin legacy as first a player in the mid-1960s, only to return later as an assistant, and eventually, head coach.

The Weller Era has been marked by NCAA Tournaments, collegiate milestones and perennial national rankings. Here is a chronological look at highlights – great moments – in Lady Terrapin history.

1972-73

Maryland wins its first state championship with a 46-43 victory over Morgan State.

1974-75

The Terps wind their way to the second of three state titles, finishing 11-6 in the final season under Dottie McKnight. Perhaps most notable was the first-ever women's basketball game ever to be televised on Jan. 26 from Cole Field House. Maryland lost to defending national champion Immaculata.

The first-ever televised women's basketball game.

1975-76

The 1975-76 season is best known as the beginning of the "Chris Weller Era." Maryland successfully defends its state championship and finishes fourth in the EAIAW Regionals in Pittsburgh, Pa. The Terps go 20-4 in Weller's first season with an 18-2 regular season marred only by a pair of one-point losses.

1976-77

Maryland receives its first national ranking on Nov. 25 with a No. 15 billing by the Associated Press. The Terps would finish in the No. 16 spot at season's end, but not after a 17-6 final record and fourth-place finish in the EAIAW Regionals. Maryland downs Virginia 79-67 on Feb. 11 to mark the beginning of the Terrapins' second-longest series in history. Jane Zivalich becomes the first Terp chosen for the U.S. Select Team.

1977-78

The Terps register their best season to date, with numerous "firsts." Maryland captures the first of its now unprecedented eight ACC championships, earns a second-place finish in the EAIAW Tournament and finishes sixth in the final AP poll. The Terps beat UCLA and Olympian Ann Myers, 92-88 on Jan. 4 in a preview to the eventual national title bout. In the midst of an 11-game win streak to open the season and a 117-47 win over Duke, Maryland grabs a still-standing record 29 steals on Jan. 14. Maryland bests No. 2 NC State 89-82 on Feb. 11 to win the ACC title, and Tara Heiss establishes what is still the school mark for single game assists with 17 against Rutgers on Feb. 28. Weller's upset magic continues with a win over No. 1 ranked Tennessee on March 17 and a win over Southern Connecticut sends the Terps to the first-ever AIAW Final Four. Maryland downs Wayland Baptist on March 23 to win its first game in Final Four history. On March 25 a record crowd of 9,351 and national television audience on NBC Sports World watch host UCLA defeat the Terps 90-74 at Pauley Pavilion for the national championship.

1978-79

The Terps capture their second straight ACC title and reach the AIAW National Tournament for the second straight season. Maryland achieves its highest national ranking on Nov. 25 with a spot in the No. 2 position. The Terps down NC State in Raleigh on Feb. 10 to claim their second ACC banner. Maryland finishes 22-7 and ends the campaign with a No. 8 national ranking.

1979-80

Kris Kirchner logs her name in the Terp record book with a modest 15-point effort against Seton Hall on Feb. 29. Its significance is her contribution to 1,351 points to establish a Maryland career record. Maryland captures its first EAIAW Regional Tournament title with a 79-70 win over Rutgers on March 8. Jane Zivalich is named a Rhodes Scholar finalist and the Terps advance to the AIAW quarterfinals. Maryland finishes with a No. 6 national ranking and a 21-9 record for its third straight 20-win season. Tara Heiss is named to the 1980 U.S. Olympic squad.

1980-81

Maryland continues its prominence in the EAIAW Regional, advancing to the title game for the fourth straight season. A 64-63 win over emerging rival NC State on Feb. 14 helps the Terps capture the ACC crown for the third time in its first four years of existence, and finish with a No. 8 ranking in the Associated Press poll. A trip to the national tournament in Knoxville, Tenn., results in a win over Kentucky and a loss to the homestanding Volunteers.

1981-82

"Four" becomes a magical number to Chris Weller and her crew as the Terps win 25 times to advance to their second Final Four – this time it is the first NCAA Final Four just four years after appearing in the national title game in th first-ever AIAW Final Four. The Terps capture their fourt ACC title with a 93-81 win over Clemson on Feb. 28. Th Terps earn the No. 2 seed in the NCAA West Regional ar defeat Stanford 82-48 in Cole Field House to mark the can pus' first NCAA Tournament game on March 14. The Terp trek west for a win over Missouri on March 19, and Drak two days later to earn a trip to their second Final Fou Cheyney State upends Maryland 76-66 to end the season c March 26, but not without a No. 3 billing in the final AP pc to mark the highest poll finish in Maryland history.

The Terps have been to three Final Fours.

Jessie Hicks scores 20 points to lead the Terrapins past No. 1 Tennessee, Dec. 30 at Cole Field House. It is Maryland's third win ever against a top-ranked foe, and coupled with a Jan. 2 victory over No. 10 Purdue, propels the Terps to a No. 3 ranking of its own. Maryland falls to Virginia, 106-103, in a memorable triple-overtime championship game of the ACC Tournament on March 8, but earns a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region. Maryland wins a pair of early-season tournaments and leads the nation in scoring defense through much of January. The Terps defeat No. 14 Duke 68-64 on Jan. 12, and drop No. 15 NC State by a 54-51 count on Jan. 18. The Terps defeat No. 21 Clemson on the road on Feb. 22 to earn a No. 3 seed in the ACC Tournament, but fall in a first-round game to Duke, 60-52 in overtime. The Terrapins manage an at-large NCAA bid in the Midwest Region.

1997-98

Facing a schedule ranked the third-strongest in the nation, Maryland leads the ACC in scoring defense and ranked 29th nationally. Maryland wins seven straight early games. Highlights include a pair of wins over Top 20 foes: No. 7 North Carolina on Jan. 18 and later No. 9 NC State in the ACC Tournament quarterfinals. Tiffany Brown nets a school record seven 3-pointers in the win over North Carolina before a national TV audience on ESPN2.

1998-99

A young Terrapin squad overcomes the absence of key seniors to finish seventh in the ACC and capture its third consecutive title in the Terrapin Classic on Dec. 29.

1999-2000

Maryland returns to the national scene as the Terps claim a berth in the 2000 Women's National Invitational Tournament. The Terps advanced all the way to the tournament's quarterfinals before falling to finalist Florida.

During the regular season, the Terps recorded a pair of upset victories over ranked teams, defeating No. 12 Duke on Feb. 3 and No. 16 Virginia on Feb. 24. The win over Duke ended the Blue Devils' 20-game home ACC win streak.

"Strive for clarity, but accept and understand ambiguity"

That phrase captures one way in which an educated person approach the world and its challenges. Students who graduate from the University Maryland have been exposed to the tools that allow them to put that persp - tive to work. Imparting such a perspective may be an ambitious project undergraduate education, but to aim for anything less would be unworthy a great university's goals for its students. Ten years ago, Promises to Keep plan for undergraduate education at Maryland, articulated those goals so e - quently we repeat them here.

Undergraduate education at Maryland "aims to provide students wit sense of identity and purpose, a concern for others, a sense of responsi - ity for the quality of life around them, a continuing eagerness for kno - edge and understanding, and a foundation for a lifetime of personal - richment."

As we learn with and from one another, we try to "develop human - ues," "celebrate tolerance and fairness," "contribute to the social c - science," "monitor and assess private and collective assumptions," a "recognize the glory, tragedy and humor of the human conditi" Your years at the University of Maryland can provide you with the tools you need to accomplish these goals. Students here "educated to be able to read with perception and pleasure, wr and speak with clarity and verve, handle numbers and co - putation proficiently, reason mathematically, generate cl questions and find probable arguments, reach subst - tiated conclusions, and accept ambiguity."

And we also hope you enjoy the journey.

University of Maryland

The Campus

The University of Maryland, College Park, the most comprehensive institution of higher ducation, research and service in the state. The niversity offers 100 undergraduate majors, 88 aster's programs and 69 doctoral programs in colleges and schools.

The university is one of only 30 public re-arch universities that are members of the pres-gious 58-member Association of American Uni-rsities. It is classified as a Research-I university the Carnegie Foundation by virtue of the ange of its baccalaureate programs, the amount f federal support received and the number of octoral degrees awarded each year, sharing that onor with the top research universities in the ountry.

Among the public universities in the Asso-ation of American Universities, Maryland ranks mong the top in percentage of African-Ameri-an undergraduate students. In addition, the uni-ersity has the largest number of African-Ameri-ans and other minority members among its eers.

Flagship Status

In 1988, the University of Maryland, Col-ge Park, was designated as the flagship insti-ution for the University System of Maryland. As ell as pursuing a serious research mission and ontinuing its high level of service to the state, he university rededicated itself to providing the ighest quality graduate and undergraduate edu-ation. Increased undergraduate opportunities or research and individual study; the develop-ent of the College Park Scholars Program and he expansion of the University Honors Program; he genesis of Honors Humanities and Gemstone; he creation of CORE, the general education pro-ram; and the establishment of the Center for eaching Excellence all affirmed the legislature's esignation of flagship.

Libraries

Seven libraries make up the University of aryland library system: McKeldin (main) Library, rchitecture Library, Art Library, Engineering and hysical Sciences Library, Hornbake Library, Per-orming Arts Library, White Memorial (Chemis-y) Library.

These libraries constitute the largest uni-ersity research library institution in the Wash-gton metropolitan area, providing vital re-ources to researchers, visiting scholars, and usinesses throughout the region. The libraries' oldings include more than 2.5 million volumes, 4,000 subscriptions to periodicals and nearly 5 illion items available in microfilm format.

Research

Opportunities for conducting research ound at the University of Maryland, College ark, and in the surrounding area, both for fac-ulty to advance their own expertise and bring their insights into the classroom, and for students to begin their exploration of their special interests with practical experience. On campus, special facilities and a number of organized research centers, bureaus, and institutes promote the acquisition and analysis of new knowledge in the arts, sciences and applied fields.

The university's enviable location — just nine miles from downtown Washington, D.C., and approximately 30 miles from both Baltimore and Annapolis — enhances the research of its faculty and students by providing access to some of the finest libraries and research centers in the country.

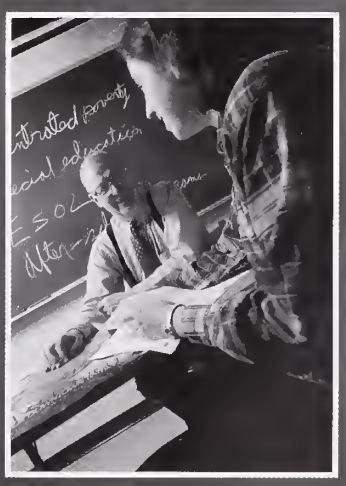
Service

Programs of public service are central to the overall mission of the university. The philosophy is reflected in the wide array of programs and initiatives that benefit the state's business, agriculture and education communities.

With more than 90 high technology firms in the three-county area of Montgomery, Prince George's and Frederick counties, the university has found abundant opportunity to extend its business and technology outreach programs to the region. Many of these programs are part of the Engineering Research Center, which operates the Technology Advancement Program and the Maryland Industrial Partnerships, programs designed to provide Maryland entrepreneurs and small businesses with research facilities, technical assistance, administrative support, and access to technology that will advance their economic base.

The Institute for Systems Research has formed partnerships with major corporations, including Lockheed Martin, Westinghouse, BF Goodrich, Hughes Aircraft and Dupont to apply advanced systems research to solving industry problems in the fields of communications, manufacturing, controls and robotics.

The University of Maryland features a diversity of cultural and recreational activities. Four art galleries, more than 200 annual musical performances and countless dance and theater productions, expose audiences to the broadest range of programs in the arts. And intercollegiate, club and intramural sports provide students of all levels an opportunity to participate as spectators or athletes.



A Wired World

Students at the University of Maryland are part of an academic community that enjoys free access to networked computer resources and facilities that are among the best in the country. Free computer accounts enable users to store class work on a networked server, download classroom support materials and other electronic information from campus networked resources such as inforM, or send electronic mail to faculty, fellow students or friends at other universities.

More, Better Students Want To Go To Maryland

The University of Maryland projects another record-breaking year for the quality of admitted students. The number of applications, GPAs and SAT scores all were up from the same time last year.

For the last 10 years, the quality of students being admitted to the University of Maryland has risen steadily. Average GPAs for incoming freshmen have risen from just under 3.0 to a projected 3.69, SAT scores of the middle 50 percent have gone from 980-1,150 to a projected 1,170-1,340, and the number of students with SAT scores above 1,300 has increased from 234 to a projected 1,155.

The University of Maryland has the state's largest concentration of academically talented students, with more than one-third of them enrolled in the invitation-only Honors, Honors Humanities, College Park Scholar or Gemstone programs.

Why There's No Better Place

There is no better place to be than the University of Maryland. As Washingtonian magazine noted in its December, 1997 issue, "...kids are turning down schools like Princeton and Virginia to go to College Park." With its top-ranked academic programs, nationally recognized faculty, diverse population and lush 1,580-acre campus located between Washington, D.C., and Baltimore, Md., it's no wonder the University of Maryland is a sought-after destination for some of the state's — and the country's — best and brightest students.

Attracting them are more than 100 majors and some of the highest ranked programs in the country. For instance, in the latest U.S. News & World Report rankings, University of Maryland ranked 22nd among national public universities. Among graduate schools, the Clark School of Engineering tied for 17th nationally; the Robert H. Smith School of Business graduate program ranked 26th; the computer science Ph.D program in the College of Computer, Mathematical and Physical Sciences ranked 11th; the College of Education ranked 22nd; and the College of Library and Information Services ranked 14th. The College of Business also has been named one of the country's top business schools for entrepreneurs by Success magazine.

For exceptional students seeking an exceptional education at the University of Maryland, College Park, there are a number of programs designed to enrich the learning experience. Among them are the Honors Program, ranked among the nine best in the country by ARCO's Guide to Ivy League Programs at State School Prices; College Park Scholars, which encourages students who share common intellectual interests to live and study together in 10 specialty areas; and the Gemstone Program, which links student teams from engineering, the humanities, business and the physical sciences in a four-year research project.

Supporting the research needs of students and faculty are some of the country's best research facilities. In 1994, the largest, most technically advanced research archives in the world — National Archives II — moved to College Park. In addition, just outside of College Park are the Library of Congress, the Smithsonian Institution and the National Libraries of Agriculture and Medicine, among others. The university itself has the most comprehensive library system in the area.

High tech, engineering and service industries thrive in proximity to the campus, offering a wide spectrum of internship and work-study opportunities that only a major metropolitan area can provide. The Kennedy Center alone houses the National Symphony Orchestra, five performance stages, an opera company, and the American Film Institute. In Baltimore, one of the great ports of the world, the Inner Harbor has become a cultural magnet for thousands of tourists each year, offering the National Aquarium, the Maryland Science Center, and other attractions.

Whether your focus is the sciences or the humanities, a small town atmosphere or a metropolitan feel, the University of Maryland, College Park offers a wide range of educational and cultural opportunities. There is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park.

President C.D. Mote, Jr.

C.D. (Dan) Mote Jr. took office as president in September 1998 with a clear vision for taking the University of Maryland down the home stretch to its destiny as one of America's great research universities.

Mote came to Maryland from the University of California at Berkeley, where he had earned all of his degrees, and where he had served in faculty and administration more than 30 years. He had most recently been vice chancellor for university relations.

In Maryland, he found a university already well on its way to achieving the greatness envisioned when the General Assembly declared it the flagship institution of the University System of Maryland. Mote immediately took a leadership role on the Governor's Task Force on Governance, Coordination and Funding of the University System of Maryland to gain greater autonomy and flexibility for the university to pursue its goals. He followed that by working closely with state leaders to boost university funding for new programs, scholarships and faculty, gaining a 10 percent appropriations increase in his first year and matching that level of increase again in his second year.

Mote spelled out in his inauguration address his vision of Maryland as a great research university, where teaching and research are "inseparable." In this plan, the faculty creates a culture of excellence that permeates the university, student success is the center of all activity, and the extended Maryland family of alumni and friends grows rich in pride and tradition.

Mote observed that "a decade ago, we dreamed the impossible – the great research university. Then we sought the improbable – the great research university. Soon we will grasp the inevitable – the great research university."

High achievement has been Dan Mote's life, from his student days at the University of California at Berkeley, through his years as an outstanding teacher and world-renowned researcher and his leadership of a highly successful capital campaign at Berkeley. He arrived in College Park determined to continue the same level of achievement in his new post.

After earning his doctorate in engineering mechanics from Berkeley in 1963, Mote spent a year as a research fellow at the University of Birmingham in England, then three years as assistant professor of mechanical engineering at the Carnegie Institute of Technology in Pittsburgh before returning to Berkeley in 1967.

There he stayed for more than 30 years before coming to Maryland. He was promoted to professor in 1973.

Mote served two terms as vice chair of mechanical engineering and served as chair from 1987 to 1991. At that time, he was appointed to the endowed FANUC Chair in mechanical systems, in addition to being named vice chancellor for university relations, the post he held until accepting the presidency at Maryland in 1998.

Mote has participated with distinction in every phase of the academic enterprise, including classroom teaching, working with students, basic research, applied research and service to the university and the community.

Much respected by his students, Mote earned the 1971 Distinguished Teaching Award and the 1975 Pi Tau Sigma Excellence in Teaching Award for the University of California. He has supervised the research of more than 50 doctoral students, including several who are still in progress, and more than 60 master's theses. He has continued teaching and supervising graduate students even during his administrative assignments, and several of his graduate students from Berkeley commute to Maryland to meet with him as they finish their dissertations. Mote has stated his intention to teach and work with graduate students at Maryland as well.

Mote's research activities have focused on dynamic systems, instrumentation, vibration and biomechanics. He has achieved international recognition for his work on the stability of gyroscopic systems, including high-speed translating and rotating systems such as circular and band saws, computer memory disks and tapes. He also has researched the biomechanics of skiing injuries and the development of safer ski bindings. His research has resulted in more than 300 scholarly publications as well as patents in the United States, Norway, Finland and Sweden.

A registered professional engineer in California, Mote has served in numerous capacities for professional societies, including the National Academy of Engineering (NAE), the American Society of Mechanical Engineers (ASME) and the American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), and is co-editor of its biannual research series, "Skiing Trauma and Safety."

Mote's work has been supported continuously since 1962 by the National Science Foundation, and he also has received research fellowships from the Royal Norwegian Council for Scientific and Industrial Research. The American Society of Mechanical Engineers International elected him to honorary membership in 1975, and he has been elected as well to fellow grade in the International Academy of Wood Science, the Acoustical Society of America and the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

He was elected to the prestigious National Academy of Engineering in 1988, and in that same year was awarded the Humboldt Prize by the Federal Republic of Germany. In 1991, the Japan Society for the Promotion of Science awarded him a fellowship.

In 1992, he conceived, designed and implemented a $1.1 billion comprehensive capital campaign, which has exceeded $1 billion to date.

By the end of Mote's second year at Maryland, the university's ongoing capital campaign, Bold Vision • Bright Future, had raised nearly $300 million of a $350 million goal, including such landmark donations as Clarice Smith's $15 million for the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center and Comcast Corporation's $25 million for the Comcast Center.

But Mote has said repeatedly that development and capital campaigns are not principally about raising money.

"They are about the university building relationships, with its alumni and friends of the university through the quality people and quality programs on campus. If we succeed in building authentic relationships, fund-raising happens as easily as the women's lacrosse team scores a goal."

Mote and his wife Patsy live in the President's Residence on the College Park campus. They have two grown children and four grandchildren.

Athletic Director Deborah A. Yow

Dr. Deborah A. Yow is in the seventh year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland ... a year in which she also has assumed the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics, an organization with a membership of more than 6,100 athletic administrators representing 1,600 colleges and universities in North America and Mexico.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony to her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability. Likewise, her election to the presidency of NACDA is an indication of the respect with which Dr. Yow is regarded in intercollegiate athletics and education in the U.S. and Canada.

In October 2000, Yow was named Female Sports Executive of the Year by the editors of Street & Smith's SportsBusiness Journal.

Also as a member of the NCAA Management Council and NCAA Division I Budget Committee, Yow presents a strong voice for excellence and integrity at the highest levels of intercollegiate athletics. In these national roles she has represented the University of Maryland and the Atlantic Coast Conference with a balanced and proactive voice.

Since taking over at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization.
- Balanced all six of the nearly $30 million annual budgets (the first balanced budgets for the Terrapins in 10 years prior to her arrival).
- Greatly enhanced the academic support services provided to student-athletes, with an enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate of nearly 90 percent during her tenure.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the upper 15 percent of all NCAA Division I institutions.
- Reorganized and upgraded marketing and fund-raising efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased 135% and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by 270% during her tenure at Maryland.
- Implemented a strategic management model.
- Paid off approximately $7 million in operating debt accrued before her arrival in 1994.
- Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fundraising applications.
- Significantly improved customer care in every area.

Maryland athletic director Deborah A. Yow took over as president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics in July 2000.

The Maryland Department of Athletics has made remarkable progress under Yow's leadership. Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past six years, Dr. Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied ... our vision is to be one of the top 10 programs in the nation consistently ... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools ... to work hard and work smart ... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves." As a manager and leader, she clearly models these principles. In 1999, she was recently singled out by Street & Smith's SportsBusiness Journal as one of the leading athletic administrators in the U.S.

A former basketball coach, she began her coaching career at the high school level in North Carolina before taking over as head women's coach at the University of Kentucky in 1976. She also achieved an outstanding coaching record as head coach at the University of Florida. She later moved into athletic administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina-Greensboro, followed by a highly successful tenure as A.D. at Saint Louis University.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics, management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States.

Summing up the entire Terrapin athletic program, Yow recently observed, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets and our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the Maryland Educational Foundation and M Club members who serve and give liberally. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our successes ... and the basis for our bright future."

National Successes

The Terps enjoyed across-the-board success in 1999-2000, with the following varsity programs earning Top 30 rankings at one time or another during their respective seasons of competition, and two teams capturing national championships (field hockey, women's lacrosse).

Prior to pursuing a career in athletics, Mullens worked for the accounting firm Ernst and Young.

He is married to the former Jane Pearson, who is the Terrapins' assistant athletic director for compliance.

Dennis Helsel

Sr. Associate A.D./ External Operations

Dennis Helsel, a veteran athletic professional whose background includes senior management posts at Akron, Syracuse and Old Dominion, is in his first year as senior associate athletic director for external operations.

Helsel joined the Maryland staff in May after serving as athletic director at Akron since September 1998. At Maryland his responsibilities include overseeing the marketing, development, media relations and compliance units.

Academic Support & Career Development

The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is committed to the academic success and career development of student athletes. In support of this commitment the department sponsors the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU).

Mission

The mission of the unit is (1) to provide quality developmental programs and need based services that will enhance the opportunity to earn an undergraduate degree, (2) offer career development opportunities and (3) support the psychosocial growth of student athletes through special initiatives.

Karen Schiferl

Staff

Nine full-time professionals, two graduate assistants, tutorial support staff and student associates comprise the unit's workforce. Associate Director Karen Schiferl serves as the ASCDU liasion with the women's basketball team.

ASCDU & The University

Primary academic advising is provided by professional advisors assigned to each student athlete by his or her home college, school or department. The ASCDU counselors serve as an important support network that coordinates and implements transitional and developmental programs to address the academic and career development needs of student athletes. In cooperation with the Office of Records and Registration, ASCDU monitors academic progress of student athletes to assure that NCAA, ACC, and University rules and regulations are met.

Location

The primary ASCDU unit is conveniently located on the ground floor of Cole Field House where student athletes have access to various resources and services. Each academic counselor has private office space in order to insure meeting privacy. A study table room is staffed by proctors and arranged to maximize student focus and concentration. The facility also houses a tutorial room devoted to servicing the learning needs of student athletes. The staff maintains two computer resource laboratories with a total of 40 personal computers containing up-to-date software packages. In addition, ASCDU coordinates a laptop computer service that provides each team access to laptop computers while traveling to away competitions.

There is also a satellite computer room in the Gossett Football Team House. Three of the nine ASCDU professionals are currently housed in the building.

Marché Strickland at work in the ASCDU computer lab.

The Future

In the summer of 2002, the $124 million Comcast Center will become the new home of the ASCDU unit. A 7,000 square foot wing has been developed to replace the current space in Cole Field House. The new home of ASCDU will be conveniently located on the floor where offices of coaches for 20 sports will also be placed. The close proximity was designed to facilitate communication among ASCDU staff, coaches and student athletes. The satellite computer lab in the Gossett Football Team House will continue to operate. In addition, a building addition of an auditorium which will seat 140 is currently planned for the Gossett Football Team House. That space will be available for use by the entire athletic program, including ASCDU.

Academic courses, programs and services offered by ASCDU include the following:

- Prospective student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- NCAA academic eligibility monitoring
- Academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops
- Accredited tutorial support
- Mentor program
- EDCP 108-J (Career decision making and planning)
- EDCP 108-K (College learning strategies and skills)
- EDCP 108-O (First-year transitions to the university)

Dr. Curl is part of the growing University Sports Medicine program of the University of Maryland Medical Center which also provides medical care for the Baltimore Ravens of the NFL, UMBC, Coppin State University and 14 high schools.

Says Deborah A. Yow, Maryland's director of athletics: "When we recruit student-athletes to play for Maryland, we owe them the best education, the best coaching and the best comprehensive health care. Dr. Curl is an excellent physician who understands college athletics. It is especially gratifying for us to partner with our medical center in the same fashion as other ACC institutions do with their medical schools."

Leigh Ann Curl, M.D.

Head Team Physician

Leigh Ann Curl, a former All-American basketball player at the University of Connecticut and a 1998 inductee into the GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame, is in her fourth year as Maryland's head team physician. She is on faculty as an assistant professor of orthopedic surgery at the University of Maryland School of Medicine.

Dr. Curl received her medical degree from Johns Hopkins University, where she also served her internship and residency. She completed a fellowship in sports medicine and shoulder surgery at Hospital for Special Surgery at Cornell University Medical Center in New York City. During her fellowship, she worked as team physician for St. John's University, the New York Mets and the New York City public schools recreation program. She also has volunteered as a team physician with Johns Hopkins University, USA Basketball and USA Rugby.

Dr. Curl graduated summa cum laude from the University of Connecticut in 1985 and was her class valedictorian. She was a four-year starter on the women's basketball team, serving two years as team captain, and became the third women's basketball player in school history to score 1,000 points. She finished her career among the all-time leaders in points and rebounds at UConn. A two-time GTE Academic All-America, Curl also was a two-time Big East Conference Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Yvette Rooks, M.D.

Dr. Yvette Rooks is in her third year as a primary care physician for Maryland's athletic program. Dr. Rooks graduated from the Upstate Medical School/Health Science Center in Syracuse, N.Y., in 1993. She completed her residency in family medicine and a sports medicine fellowship at the University of Maryland, Baltimore. She currently is an assistant professor in the Department of Family Medicine at the University of Maryland School of Medicine. Dr. Rooks also serves as a team physician at Coppin State.

Dr. Curtin played collegiate baseball at Villanova. He and his wife, Yolanda, are the parents of Calvin, 4, and Matthew, 2.

Sandy Worth

Head Athletic Trainer

Sandy Worth, who has been affiliated with Maryland's athletic program since 1973, coordinates and directs the medical care for the Terps' athletics program in addition to her responsibilities as the university's head athletic trainer.

A native of Timonium, Md., Worth supervises and schedules a professional staff of six full-time assistants and approximately 25 student trainers who combine to provide medical assistance to the university's more than 600 student-athletes. Worth, a 1973 graduate of Maryland, joined the Terps' staff that same year as an associate trainer. She was promoted to head trainer in 1992.

During her career at Maryland, Worth has worked directly with five teams that have captured national championships — four in women's lacrosse and one in field hockey. In addition, she was the trainer for the women's basketball program when it won eight ACC titles and advanced to three NCAA Final Fours.

Matt Charvat

Women's Basketball Trainer

Matt Charvat enters his second season as the women's basketball trainer at Maryland. He came to College Park after two years on the training staff at Morehead State. A native of Hinckley, Ohio, Charvat earned his bachelor's degree in sports medicine from Baldwin-Wallace College in Berea, Ohio. He also worked as a trainer for the Canton-Akron Indians Double-A baseball team for six years.

He earned his master's degree from Morehead State in Exercise Science in 1999.

Strength and Conditioning

In the highly competitive world of collegiate basketball, the off-court preparation of the basketball athlete is a critical component in the on-court success of any Division I program. Dwight Galt and Barry Kagan of Maryland's strength and conditioning department believe strongly that a solid off-court training program can dramatically improve levels of performance, as well as significantly reduce the chance of injury. The benefit of performing structured strength and power training throughout the entire year has allowed the Terps to reach new levels in physical development and in turn has resulted in great success on the basketball court.

Dwight Galt

Barry Kagan

At the University of Maryland, the maximal development of athleticism is the primary goal of the strength and conditioning program. To accomplish this requires more than just strength and power training in the weight room. Speed improvement, agility, flexibility, conditioning, plyometrics, and nutrition also play critical roles. The Terps' strength staff places substantial emphasis on all these areas, with special attention on the improvement of speed potential. Galt and his staff employ a wide range of state-of-the-art training methods to assist in enhancing all aspects of speed development.

The Terrapins are fortunate to train in one of the premier weight training facilities in the United States. Conveniently located in the Gossett Football Team House, this facility has excellent aesthetic appeal, with two magnificent skylights and large windows overlooking the playing field at Byrd Stadium. The Terps' spacious weight room includes 7,200 square feet of functional floor space, with two elevated offices that are easily accessible to the training floor.

Terrapin Club

The Terrapin Club is composed of alumni, friends and fans of University of Maryland athletics. Your Terrapin Club contribution provides annual athletic scholarship support to our student-athletes. As a Terrapin Club member, you will enjoy the camaraderie and fellowship unique to this organization. Supporting the Club is a great way to stay connected with the University of Maryland, the state's flagship institution. Most importantly, you will feel the pride and satisfaction in providing a University of Maryland student-athlete with a quality education.

Erwin Raffel '58, '61
Terrapin Club President

Your donation is vital. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics operates without significant university funding and receives no state appropriations or tax dollars for operational expenses. We are challenged to fund the 269 full scholarships presently offered and, in the future, to fund the maximum number of scholarships allowed by the NCAA for our 25 sports. We cannot reach this goal without your participation.

"As a scholarship athlete, I was provided with a platform of opportunities ... a chance to make a difference ... Maryland athletics gave me that and more..."

"Receiving a scholarship was, in itself, an honor; but more important, it allowed me to spend valuable time participating in internships that prepared me for my career, instead of working my way through school. That scholarship is still paying dividends, years after my time in College Park."

Major Gift Fundraising

Maryland Educational Foundation 'Endowments for the Future'

The primary mission of the Maryland Educational Foundation (MEF) is to provide scholarship endowment funds in support of the athletic department's annual athletic scholarship expenses. By supporting talented, deserving student-athletes, donors ensure that our legacy of excellence will continue and grow. For more than 50 years, the MEF has provided financial support for Maryland athletics and is an important part of the department's gift-giving program. The vision of the MEF is to raise enough dollars through private gifts to build an endowment capable of permanently funding many of the university's scholarships now being awarded.

Cheryl Harrison
Director, Dev. for Major Gifts

What is an endowment? An endowment is a gift in which the principal is held in perpetuity, with only the income used (in part or whole) for scholarships. The MEF invites you to discuss gifts such as cash, securities, real estate, insurance, personal property, life income, gifts of pooled income funds, charitable remainder trusts, charitable gift annuities, wills and bequests. An endowment gift is truly a significant investment in the future of Maryland athletics. Contact Dick Corrigan or Cheryl Harrison at 301-314-7020 if you would like more information.

Building On A Winning Tradition

As the Terps prepare to compete in the 21st century, Maryland athletics must ensure that its program is able to remain competitive by recruiting high caliber players and maintaining and attracting loyal fans. To do so, as part of Bold Vision • Bright Future: The Campaign for the University of Maryland, the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics has entered into a historic effort to increase private financial support for the construction and renovation of athletic facilities.

At the center of the plan for our future is a new, state-of-the-art arena and home for Maryland Athletics, the Comcast Center. The Building Partners Campaign is the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' effort to raise $20 million in outright gifts toward the construction of the Comcast Center. Quality facilities attract outstanding student-athletes, great crowds and a tremendous amount of energy and excitement. The competition site for men's and women's basketball, wrestling, volleyball and gymnastics, Comcast Center will be the centerpiece of intercollegiate athletics at the University of Maryland. The venue will be the best in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

By participating in the Building Partners Campaign, athletic benefactors have a chance to make a historic impact on the future of the University of Maryland and its athletics program. The Building Partners Campaign offers donors a unique opportunity to permanently link their names to the tradition of Terrapin athletics. Donors who make contributions of $25,000 to $1 million or more are entitled to permanent seat assignments in Comcast Center, in recognition of the substantial investment they have made in Maryland Athletics with their Building Partner Campaign contributions.

To obtain additional information on supporting the Building Partners Campaign, contact Cheryl Harrison or Dick Corrigan at 301-314-7020 or toll free at 800-653-7667 or visit our website at www.terrapinclub.org.

The M Club "Athletes Helping Athletes"

The M Club was founded in 1923 by a group of former University of Maryland athletes led by Dr. H.C. "Curley" Byrd to encourage excellence in athletics. It is one of the oldest and most respected letterwinner clubs in the country with an organization of more than 4,200 former Maryland varsity athletes.

The M Club goals are to help achieve the very best overall academic and athletic program for the 25 varsity teams, to aid the athletes in making positive contributions to the community, to obtain and maintain funds for awards and scholarships, and to cultivate social contact and good sportsmanship among the wearers of the "M."

Membership participation, through the payment of annual dues, helps build the scholarship endowment fund and support student-athletes' awards and recognition efforts. Members receive the monthly athletic department publication (TerpTalk) for information about the current teams and news about their former teammates.

In addition, active members receive information about, and discounts for, various M Club activities. Many benefits are intangible, including the satisfaction of having lettered at a great university and being a part of a unique and exclusive organization.

David Diehl
Executive Director

University of Maryland letterwinners interested in the M Club should call David Diehl at (301) 314-5372 or Dotti Warren at (301) 314-7020, or visit www.umd-mclub.org.

Remember the M Club, "Athletes Helping Athletes."

Cole Field House

When college basketball was achieving its most explosive growth - from the late 1950's to the late 1970's – there was one college gymnasium on the East Coast that sat as many as 12,000 fans. Cole Field House epitomized the new big time, main event status of college hoops, the sport of network TV and emerging legends. It stands today as a building that faces cosmetic renewal over the next several years, but Cole's charisma will not be tampered with. There was not a bad seat on December 2, 1955, when it was dedicated in the men's game against Virginia, and there is not a better place to watch a game today. Only in a building like Cole, where history has been routinely made, can the fan feel the echo of tradition and experience the electricity generated by buzzer beaters and a thousand slam dunks.

Cole was dedicated as the Student Activities Center, a $3.3 million project that was erected under the tutelage of Board of Regents Chair, Judge William P. Cole, Jr., and President Wilson Elkins. A year after the dedication, the building was named in honor of Cole, who served the Board of Regents for 25 years.

Although Cole has remained the same basketball hall it was built to be, there have been refinements. Scoreboards were installed that not only tell the fan what the score is, but also how loud they are cheering. A new floor design reflects a modern era of basketball. Cole's seating also grew from its original base, and now 14,500 fans can cheer for the red and white at any game.

As championships were awarded over the years, Cole got some of the very best. The 1966 and 1970 men's basketball Final Four were held here. In 1990, the first and second rounds of the eastern regionals were in Cole Field House. The NCAA wrestling championships were held here in 1960, 1972, 1978, 1987, and 1990, and the NCAA women's volleyball championship took place here in 1990.

Cole Field House is home to most of the athletic department offices, and yearly hosts thousands who visit just to see where so much basketball history has been made.

Before Your Visit

Game credentials are issued to accredited members of the media only. Working space in the press area of Cole is limited and seats are expressly reserved for those working on deadline, with no exceptions. Children and other non-workers are not allowed in the press area. Credentials should be ordered at least one week before each game and are issued through the Media Relations Office. Requests for credentials should be made in writing and on letterhead stationery to Stephanie Mociun in the Media Relations office. If it is convenient for you to FAX your request, you are welcome to do so. The FAX number in the Media Relations Office is (301) 314-9094. These requests are accepted from Sports Editors and Sports Directors only. The credential requests should be sent so that they reach the Media Relations Office at least one week prior to the desired games. They are carefully screened to insure good working conditions in the press area. When time permits, a working press pass and a parking pass will be mailed. When this is not possible, they will be left at the Press Will Call entrance at the back door of Cole. The back door of Cole directly faces Byrd Stadium.

Photographers, too, should make their credential requests at least one week in advance. Credential requests for photography passes are welcome. Photographers should note that the Cole Field House lights are color balanced for daylight. An exposure setting of 250 at f2.8 has been found to work well with ASA 400 film and normal processing. Strobe lights may be installed in Cole, but arrangements must be made though the Media Relations Office two weeks in advance. Space for strobe lights is available on a first come, first served basis.

Game Day Press Parking is located on the Byrd Stadium promenade, under the Tyser Tower press box. The promenade is best accessed from the Stadium Drive entrance to campus. Access is via press parking pass only and is available on an extremely limited basis.

Media Work Room

A press work room is available for working media only on the court level of Cole. The media workroom is located just off of the basketball court to your left. A limited number of long distance phone lines are available on a first-come, first serve basis and require a credit card for billing.

The room opens well before game time and media representatives are welcome to make themselves comfortable. Food service is available to the media in the press room as a pre-game meal is served buffet style for weekday and tournament games.

Photographers are also welcome to shoot from the photo deck on the west side of Cole. Access to the photo deck is from the concourse level opposite the team benches.
